Three Pirates Earn NSCAA All-Southeast Region Honors

Posted: Dec 02, 2010

SAVANNAH, Ga. - Three members of the Armstrong Atlantic State University women's soccer squad earned All-Southeast Region honors, announced today by the National Soccer Coaches' Association of America (NSCAA). Junior defender Kelli Bahr was named to the first team, while senior defender Carey Patterson and sophomore forward Kristina Pascutti were named to the second team.

Bahr's first-team honor will qualify her for possible All-America honors, to be announced by the NSCAA in a week's time. The Middleton, Wisc., native helped the Pirates set a school record in 2010 by limiting opponents to an 0.83 goals against average while also collecting one goal and two assists on the season. She was also an All-PBC and Daktronics/CoSIDA All-Region honoree this season.

Patterson, meanwhile, earns a second-team honor for also helping the Pirates to their best-ever defensive performance this season. A native of Panama City Beach, Fla., Patterson was a two-time PBC Defensive Player of the Week honoree this season and also earned All-PBC and Daktronics/CoSIDA All-Region honors.

Pascutti earns her first career All-Region honor for scoring seven goals and three assists in 2010, tying for the team lead in goals despite missing five matches due to injury. The Lilburn, Ga., native began the season with goals in four straight matches, extending her streak to eight carrying over from 2009, and she has tallied 15 goals in two seasons with the Pirates.

The NSCAA All-Region teams are voted on by member coaches and coaches vote only on players their teams played against during the 2010 season. Click here to view the complete 2010 All-Southeast Region squad.

Armstrong finished the 2010 season as the Southeast Region finalist, going 14-4-2 and capturing the school's first Peach Belt Conference regular season title.
